SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY 24TH FEBRUARY 2019 THEME: LESSONS IN HOLINESS

Welcome to worship today. Our services at 7:45am and 8:45am begin on p.119 of the green prayer-book in your pew, and at 10am on the power-point screen

Reflection on today's Gospel reading (Luke 6:27-38)

Today's Gospel reading from Jesus' Sermon on the Plain (in Luke's Gospel) contains seriously challenging lessons for us. We are asked to do good to those who hate us; to bless those who curse us; to lend to those who won't pay us back; to love our enemies. If we're honest we have to admit this is very difficult teaching indeed. Could any of us have that much faith and forbearance?

We think we are not as holy as Jesus. But Jesus calls us to be like God, no less. "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful" is a call to delve into our own vulnerability to see our mutual need for forgiveness, healing, and restoration. The imperatives of this Sermon on the Plain set high standards, but Jesus is not asking us to be perfect on our own. Our holiness cannot be achieved alone but only through a merciful relationship with one another. Holiness, as God has created as our birthright, is wholeness. We cannot do it apart from divine love.

Welcome to Worship

Please join us for morning tea after all services today

Archbishop Geoff's Prayer for the Diocese

Living God, we thank you for your vision for the whole creation and that you call us to share in your mission.

*We pray that you grow your church:
Bring more people to faith in Jesus;
Deepen our trust in you and knowledge of you;
Help us to serve and bless our community;
And strengthen us to be generous with the money and resources you give us.
May we grow as disciples of Jesus and make disciples of others for the blessing of the world you love. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.*
