NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
20TH OCTOBER 2019

THEME: FAITH PERSISTS

7:45AM & 8:45AM SERVICES BEGIN ON PAGE 119 OF THE GREEN PRAYER BOOK

Reflection

Jesus' parable about the unjust judge and the persistent widow is downright hilarious. You can imagine Jesus' listeners laughing at this unlikeable unjust judge who has to give in to the widow demanding justice because she simply will not give up hassling him. Jesus paints this scenario to encourage our persistence in prayer.

Is God like the unjust judge who only gives in to us so he can get some peace? No! As Jesus points out, if this unjust judge will eventually give justice then how much more can we rely on God to grant justice to his children who cry out to him.

We know from experience that justice can be slow in coming. We also know that tyrants and unjust structures do fall and justice and goodness can sometimes win out even against the odds. We can hear in this unlikely parable the invitation to persist in prayer even when injustice seems to be winning. Even then, persist faithfully in prayer.

Parish Vision Prayer

*Eternal God, Our God,
God of our forebears
and of all future generations,
You call us to faithfully follow Christ,
Loving you and our neighbour as ourselves. Inspire us to dream dreams and see visions, and guide us by the leading of your Holy Spirit.
We pray in the name of Jesus,
our Saviour, Lord and friend. Amen.*

NOTES AND NEWS

WELCOME to everybody attending worship today. Please join us for morning tea.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAMME AND PARISH VISION

Information is available this morning about our planned giving programme and feedback from the recent parish vision week. This has also been emailed. If you are already part of the planned giving programme please take your named envelope. We want to reach everyone in the parish so all other parishioners are encouraged to either read the emailed information or take one of the planned giving programme brochures at the church. We would like responses by the first week in November. This is absolutely vital for our budgeting for the next two years.

GALS (Glenelg Anglican Ladies)

The senior ladies of the parish meet again on Tuesday evening this week, in the Community Centre at 7.30pm for a cuppa and chat. All welcome!

NEXT UKULELE CHURCH - 5PM SUNDAY 27TH OCTOBER.

Our Ukulele church continues to offer an alternative form of worship including lots of fun and community singing (and sore fingers). If you have friends and family who are interested in church but might not respond to traditional worship then this may be a great first step for them to try.

ADMISSION TO COMMUNION AND CONFIRMATION PREPARATION.

Thank you to those who have responded. We will run the preparation period between November JAM and December JAM. Last chance to indicate your interest. Please speak to Andrew or Michele

HACKY SACKS FOR YEAR 7's

We still have lots of 'sacks' to be covered, so please ask at the office for a pattern and give it a try! It is a simple and fun thing to do for the kids.

ALL SOULS DAY SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE ON WEDNESDAY 6TH NOVEMBER AT 7:00PM

Commemorating and giving thanks for those dear to us who have died (particularly in the past year) and to pray for them and their families. You are invited to place names of loved ones on the memorial list at the back of the church. The list of names will be read at the service. All welcome.

GLENELG CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

The Glenelg Pageant will be held on Sunday 24th November this year (St Peter's Services will still be held at the usual times). The combined churches entry will be called "The Miracle of Love" and will be centred around a float with a nativity scene. Parish children and their adult carers are invited to participate. Younger children can dress as shepherds or angels and older children can help hold the entry banner or fluoro arrows pointing to the nativity scene. For more info see Andrew OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD - FINAL DAY TO RETURN - SUNDAY 3RD NOVEMBER!

Our Christmas Shoe Boxes of Love appeal for 2019 is under-way. Information leaflets and boxes are available at services and from the parish office. The Parish Council cover the $10 per box, so all you need to do is find some appropriate gifts to fill the box and return it to church by Sunday 3rd November.

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY

Michele will be leading a four part Advent Study based around the words of the popular Christmas carol 'Angels from the Realms of Glory'. The study will be held on Wednesday afternoons at 2pm in the Choir Vestry on 6/11, 13/11, 20/11, 27/11. Also on Thursday nights from 7.30pm on 7/11, 14/11, 21/11, 28/11. Please RSVP on an attendance sheet.

Transport to and from St Peter's or St Martin's is available by private vehicles. If you can assist with transportation by bringing someone to church please contact the Parish Office.
