

GLENELG CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

The Glenelg Pageant will be held on Sunday 24th November this year (St Peter's Services will still be held at the usual times). The combined churches entry will be called "The Miracle of Love" and will be centred around a float with a nativity scene. Parish children and their adult carers are invited to participate. Younger children can dress as shepherds or angels and older children can help hold the entry banner or fluoro arrows pointing to the nativity scene. For more info see Andrew

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST 3RD NOVEMBER 2019

THEME: CHANGING PERSPECTIVES

7:45AM & 8:45AM SERVICES BEGIN ON PAGE 119 OF THE GREEN PRAYER BOOK

Reflection

Last week in our Gospel reading we heard about the rich young ruler who couldn't follow Jesus because he was too attached to his wealth. Today we hear about Zacchaeus who, though very wealthy and a despised tax collector for the Romans, willingly gave up half his possessions in response to Jesus' call to come and visit him.

Jesus routinely changed the perspectives of those who came into contact with him. When he asked to visit Zacchaeus, the perspective of the crowd was challenged as they grumbled that Jesus was going to associate with a "sinner". Zacchaeus' perspective was changed through being included by Jesus and it resulted in him generously giving away his wealth to those in need and to any he had defrauded.

It is a challenging thought to look at people the way Jesus might see them. Particularly if we don't like them, have been hurt by them, or have them pigeon-holed into a certain category. Can we allow Jesus to change our perspective about those we have judged harshly? Are there ways we need to change when we come into Jesus company?

The Tree of Zacchaeus is a Sycamore tree that is over 2000 years old and is located at Al-Jummezeh Square in the City Centre of Jericho.

A prayer for today

So often we find ourselves stuck. Stuck in systems that perpetuate injustice, stuck in situations we would wish to change, stuck in perspectives that define our actions. Transforming God, move us to new perspectives in body, mind, and spirit this day. Bless the reading of your word that it might guide our change. Amen.

† VALE ~ Margaret McPhail

Our Choir has been much saddened by the recent death of Margaret. She was a chorister as a girl, and then re-joined the Choir in 1982 when her husband retired from the Army. Such great service to our church for so many years.
