Our readings stir up the possibility for the future that only hope can bring. Hope in Isaiah 60:1-6 is for a people who return to their land after being forcibly exiled and return to find everything in ruins. Hope in Psalm 72 is for people who have been oppressed. They're hope is for justice, liberation and care. St Paul writes in the letter to Ephesians 3:1-12 that hope comes in the mystery of faith, a revelation of who Christ is in our fruitful relationship with and in Him. We are all equal in Christ. In Matthew 2:1-12 the birth of Emmanuel (God is with us) gave hope that a King would be radically different to the tyrant and oppressive King Herod.

In our modern day Australia, we always have hope even where fire traps, destroys, kills. We hope see it in the eyes of fire fighters, the survivors, in products and labour donated to help all involved. A hope for a new day, for new opportunities, for a new perspective. Desmond Tutu said - "Hope is being able to see that there is light despite all of the darkness."

For the next fortnight we have the pleasure of hearing Peter Thomson play at our service. Thank you Peter.

SETTING UP FOR SERVICES—CAN YOU HELP?

We are also in need of committed people who could help with the preparations for our Sunday services at St Peter's. These duties includes preparing the communion vessels with the bread and the wine attending to candles and washing the communion vessels. You'd be a part of a team. The role takes about two hours. The work is not onerous or strenuous and could be performed on a Thursday, Friday or Saturday when the Parish office is open. If you would like to know more about what is involved please speak to Fr Andrew or Rev Michele.

PARISHIONER'S PLATTERS & PLASTIC BOXES

The Community Centre has a collection of platters, trays and plastic boxes, parishioners have left behind after kindly bringing along food for parish functions. Would you please check to see if you can find your lost treasure.

THANK YOU TO THE CHOIR

Thank you to the St Peter's Choir for all their hard work over the Advent and Christmas season. Many of the Christmas Carols are physically and technically challenging to sing. The Choir is having a break until February.
