DAY OF PENTECOST

SUNDAY 7TH JUNE 2020

WORSHIP THEME: COMMUNITY OF LOVE

Parish Priest's Message

Dear Friends,

It is Trinity Sunday! Is this just about pondering the mystery of God? No, it is a day to grasp that the central image of God for Christians and the central paradigm for the church is – “being a community of love”. The Christian image of God as three persons in one God is the not just arcane philosophy it is the practical model for how we are to live.

This past week has been National Reconciliation Week in Australia. A week to reflect on our history of race relations in Australia that has, at times, been a long way from being a community of love. We are now more conscious of this than ever and reconciliation is more to the forefront of our national consciousness but there is always more work to do on this journey.

The tragedy we've seen in the USA this past week has shown us that the deep wounds and divisions of racism can boil over with tragic consequences. In such circumstances the path of reconciliation can be a powerful expression of trinitarian theology. Trinity shows us both the power of unity and the celebration of difference. It is our model of Christian community. Humans will always fall short of the divine model of communal being but the power of Christianity is that through forgiveness we are constantly being reconciled back into community with God and with one another. The wounds of society must still be acknowledged and addressed. There can be no peace and reconciliation without justice, and there can be no justice without equality and love. The Holy Trinity constantly guides us to strive to be a reflection of the divine community of love no matter what barriers stand in our way. Thanks be to God.

Peace be with you all, Andrew.

First Reading

Genesis 1:1 – 2:4a

A reading from the book of Genesis

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, 'Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.' So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, 'Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.' And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, 'Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.' And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, 'Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.' And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, 'Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.' So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.' And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.' And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.'

So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.' God said, 'See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.' And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8

APBA p.229

- 1 O Lord our Governor:
how glorious is your name in all the earth!
- 2 Your majesty above the heavens is yet recounted:
by the mouths of babes and sucklings.
- 3 You have founded a strong defence
against your adversaries:
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens,
the work of your fingers:
the moon and the stars
which you have set in order,
- 5 What are we, that you should be mindful of us:
what are we, that you should care for us?
- 6 Yet you have made us little less than gods:
and have crowned us with glory and honour.
- 7 You have given us dominion over your handiwork:
and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet,
- 8 All sheep and oxen:
and all the creatures of the field,
- 9 The birds of the air and the fish of the sea:
and everything that moves in the pathways of the great waters.
- 10 O Lord our Governor:
how glorious is your name in all the earth!

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

A reading from the second letter to the Corinthians

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Matthew 28:16-20

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

SUNDAY KIDS@HOME

The Sunday Kids@Home activity is based around the theme of there being One God - God the Father (creator, almighty, everlasting) God the Son (redeemer, saviour, messiah) and God the Holy Spirit (Advocate, helper and guide).

There are many analogies for explaining the Trinity and Lorna has some wonderful 3 ingredient recipes to make at home. If you do make the recipes, please share your photos with Lorna, Michele and Andrew. The "Big kids" of our parish might enjoy making Trinity inspired recipes too. If you do make one, please send us a photo too!

FINANCE MEETING – THIS TUESDAY 9TH JUNE AT 4PM IN THE COMMUNITY CENTRE

Finance committee members please note that this week we will meet in person in the community centre (with social distancing) for our regular bi-monthly finance meeting. Agenda and notes will be emailed.

* COVID 19 UPDATE FOR OUR PARISH *

Dear friends. We are in the process of completing our COVID safe registration. We expect to be able to do that this week. Online services continue next Sunday (14th) but we hope that Thursday Morning and St Martin's services may commence the week after. It is problematic re-starting St Peter's Sunday morning services until numbers increase beyond 20 people. We are hopeful that may occur in July. As this situation changes we will send out communication by direct email or newsletter when we can announce the recommencement of physical services.

Our completed mural is still hanging in the community centre window. Why not have a look as you pass by.

Here's a picture of our next mural to be coloured-in. This mural will be slightly smaller, and one piece has already been taken home. There's another 8 pieces that need to be completed.

Come and collect a piece from the parish office if you'd like to join in the fun.

Prayer requests can still be rung through to the parish office or emailed and we can add the person to the prayer list in the pew sheet. Private prayers can also be offered through contacting the Parish Prayer People. If there is anyone on our prayer list who can come off it for the time being, please let us know.
