FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT (VESTRY DAY)

SUNDAY 21ST MARCH 2021

WORSHIP THEME: A Heart for God

Parish Priest's Message

Thank you to all those attending our Annual Combined Service and Vestry Meeting today. As your parish priest I only ever think of this as 'one' parish. I realise though many parishioners may tend to think of their church as just the congregation they worship in, or perhaps just the small group activity they attend. I want to challenge everyone to see that we are one united Anglican Parish of Glenelg. Vestry Day offers a very real celebration of that fact and gives us the chance to worship together. Perhaps we may even meet some people who have been in the parish for years but, until now, we have never met. So if you are reading this in advance of Sunday morning, I encourage you to take the chance to come along and be part of it.

There is nothing controversial to discuss in the vestry meeting and all the positions have received enough nominations. We do have some news to share about our Heritage Conservation plans. I would also like to flag at vestry that Parish Council will be discussing recent communication to parishes from the Archbishop which will allow (for parishes that agree) provision of individual cups for communion. This means we could re-introduce the wine along with the bread for communion. There are some big practical issues to consider in managing this for a congregation the size of our Sunday 10am service. Smaller services will be more feasible. Is this a direction we wish to go in? It seems likely the common cup will not return in the near future and this could be a possible stop-gap solution. Of course, for many church denominations (usually ones that only have communion infrequently) individual cups are the only way they distribute communion. Whilst this is a Parish Council decision, I'd like to informally gauge the response of vestry.

In conclusion, thank you to each one of you for being part of our parish community. Thank you for your prayers and your worship. Thank you for your volunteering. Thank you for your shared pastoral care of one another. May God continue to guide us and help us grow into our Christian vocation here at Glenelg.

Fr Andrew

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

‘This is the covenant I will make with them,’ says the Lord God: ‘I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God and they shall be my people.’

Jeremiah 31.33

Prayer of the Day (Parish Vision Prayer)

Eternal God, our God,

God of our forebears and of all future generations,

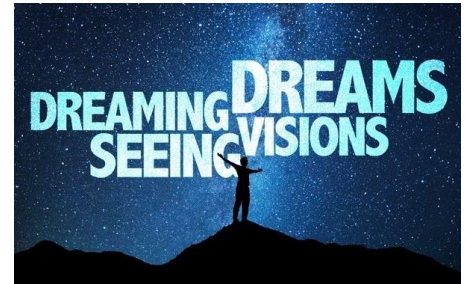

You call us to faithfully follow Christ,

Loving you and our neighbour as ourselves.

Inspire us to dream dreams and see visions,

And guide us by the leading of your Holy Spirit.

We pray in the name of Jesus, our Saviour, Lord and Friend. Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 31.31-34

A Reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord : I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, ‘Know the Lord ’, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord ; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Hear the word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

Psalm 95

O come, let us sing out to the Lord;

let us shout in triumph

to the Rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his face with thanksgiving:

and cry out to him joyfully in psalms.

For the Lord is a great God,

and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth:
and the peaks of the mountains are his also.
The sea is his and he made it:
his hands moulded dry land.
Come, let us worship and bow down:
and kneel before the Lord our maker.
For he is the Lord our God:
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Second Reading

Hebrews 5.5-10

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

This reading will be omitted for our Vestry Service

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

‘You are my Son, today I have begotten you’;

as he says also in another place,

‘You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.’

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia

If anyone serves me, says the Lord, they must follow me;

For wherever I am, my servant will be there also.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 12.20-26

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, ‘Sir, we wish to see Jesus.’ Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

Jesus answered them, 'The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.

For the Gospel of the Lord praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
