PALM SUNDAY

SUNDAY 28TH MARCH 2021

WORSHIP THEME: Entering Holy Week

Parish Priest's Message

Praise! Expectation! Anger! Jealousy!
Service! Sharing! Prayer! Betrayal! Denial!
Pain! Suffering! Sacrifice! Sadness! Grief!
Hope! Love! Life! This week has it all! For the Christian, no other series of days in the Christian year is as important or as meaningful as Holy Week.

The themes of this week are too big to capture in a single service and so we commemorate and live them through a series of services which form one continuous liturgical journey. Today we start that journey entering Jerusalem with Jesus. The crowd's expectant hysteria reaches fever pitch when they see a "new king humble and riding on a donkey" (Zechariah 9:9). We capture this moment through the symbol of the palm branches decorating the churches and a palm cross for you each to take home.

I recommend that after this service you read on from today's Gospel right through to the end of St Mark's Gospel reading. A helpful reading plan might be:

Monday vv.11:12 – 12:12; Tuesday 12:13 - 13:8; Wednesday 13:9 – 14:2;
Maundy Thursday 14:3 – 31; Good Friday 14:32 – 15:41;
Holy Saturday 15:42-47; Easter Day 16:1-8

As you read, allow your imagination to take you into the situations you are reading about, imagining that you are actually present. Notice your reactions and responses and pray about them. This meditative reading of the scriptures, as suggested by St Ignatius, can help us really engage with the divine drama and connect it with our own lives. Each of our Holy Week services will tie in with different parts of this Gospel drama – The last Supper
(our Passover meals); the crucifixion (our Good Friday services); and the Resurrection (Easter Day).

May God bless each of you richly as we walk the journey of Holy Week together that our lives may be touched anew with God's gift of abundant resurrection life. Fr Andrew

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

At the name of Jesus, every knee shall bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2.10–11

Prayer of the Day

God of all, you gave your only-begotten Son to take the form of a servant, and to be obedient even to death on a cross: give us the same mind that was in Christ Jesus that, sharing in his humility, we may come to be with him in his glory, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 50.4-9a

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord God has opened my ear,

and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards.

I gave my back to those who struck me,

and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;

I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,

and I know that I shall not be put to shame;

he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 31:9-18

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble:
my eye wastes away for grief,
my throat also and my inward parts.

¹⁰ For my life wears out in sorrow,
and my years with sighing:
my strength fails me in my affliction,
and my bones are consumed.

¹¹ I am become the scorn of all my enemies:
and my neighbours wag their heads in derision.

¹² I am a thing of horror to my friends:
and those that see me in the street shrink from me.

¹³ I am forgotten like one dead and out of mind:
I have become like a broken vessel.

¹⁴ For I hear the whispering of many:
and fear is on every side;

¹⁵ While they plot together against me:
and scheme to take away my life.

¹⁶ But in you, Lord, have I put my trust:
I have said 'You are my God.'

¹⁷ All my days are in your hand:
O deliver me from the power of my enemies and from my persecutors.

¹⁸ Make your face to shine upon your servant:
and save me for your mercy's sake.

response:

In you, O Lord
I found refuge;
Let me nevermore
Be put to shame.

Second Reading

Philippians 2.5-11

A Reading from the Letter to the Philippians

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death - even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend,

in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Hear the word of the Lord, Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the Lord Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 11:1-11

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" just say this, "The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately." ' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

'Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!'

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER REQUESTS – PUBLIC AND PRIVATE

Prayer requests for Sunday intercessions can be given to the parish office and added to the Sunday prayer list for a time. Please note that people should give their permission to have their name added to this list. We also appreciate updates on their progress and in the event of good news, people can be removed from the list. If you would like prayers for yourself or someone else but confidentially, rather than on the public list, then please speak to one of the clergy (or Sandy Anderson at St Martin's). There is a dedicated team of prayer people in the parish who will pray for you. If you feel called to this ministry of prayer please speak to one of the clergy.
