THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

SUNDAY 18TH APRIL 2021

WORSHIP THEME: WE ARE WITNESSES

Parish Priest's Message

Dear Friends,

As the Easter season continues, we reflect further on the mystery of the resurrection and God's gift of new life. The resurrection was revealed to the disciples through a number of appearances of the risen Christ. The enormity of resurrection cannot be captured in a single celebration so we celebrate it throughout an entire six week season and, indeed, every Sunday is always a celebration of Easter.

Today we reflect on a resurrection appearance of Jesus taken from Luke's Gospel. Many of us are familiar with the Road to Emmaus story, and how Cleopas and the other disciple ran back to Jerusalem to tell the disciples what they had experienced. Today's Gospel is what happened when they reached Jerusalem. It was while the eleven disciples and the companions were discussing this that Jesus stood among them. As in most of the resurrection accounts the disciples were 'startled and terrified'. Jesus comforts them, assures them of God's plan of salvation and eats a piece of broiled fish. This last detail seems unusual but is there to assure us that he is not a ghost or a vision. He is a transformed physical presence with them. Faith may stumble at this point, but our abiding belief in life after death and our vision of heaven has grown from the seeds of these resurrection appearances. The conviction of the disciples and the ongoing experience of God's gift of new life, in many circumstances, continues to form all Christians into living as a hope-filled resurrection people. Christ is risen indeed.

Stations of the Cross - If you haven't seen the stations of the cross at St Peter's yet, take some time to look at them. They start at the organ and go around the church. Spare copies of the accompanying Good Friday liturgy are available at the back of the church.

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

Turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord. Acts 3.19–20

Prayer of the Day

Lord of life,
by submitting to death, you conquered the grave;
by being lifted upon the cross,
you draw all peoples to you;
by being raised from the dead,
you restore to humanity all that was lost through sin:
be with us in your risen power,
that in word and deed we may proclaim
the marvellous mystery of death and resurrection.
For all praise is yours, now and throughout eternity. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 3.12-20

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, ‘You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. ‘And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

- ¹ Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness:
when I was hard-pressed you set me free;
be gracious to me now and hear my prayer.
- ² Children of earth, how long will you turn my glory to my shame:
how long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?
- ³ Know that the Lord has shown me his wonderful kindness:
when I call to the Lord he will hear me.
- ⁴ Tremble, and do no sin:
commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still.
- ⁵ Offer the sacrifices that are right:
and put your trust in the Lord.
- ⁶ There are many who say 'Who will show us any good?:
the light of your countenance, O Lord, has gone from us.'
- ⁷ Yet you have given my heart more gladness:
that they have when their corn, wine and oil increase.
- ⁸ In peace I will lie down and sleep:
for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

2nd Reading1 John 3.1-7*A Reading from the First Letter of John

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Jesus said: 'You believe because you can see me.
Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 24.36b-48

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus stood among the disciples and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

MISSING!!!

Somewhere in the nave of St Peter's Church from the Youth Group glow in the dark Easter Egg hunt. The egg may contain 2 mini eggs or an expired battery-operated tea light. REWARD chocolate eggs. See Michele for the reward.

BUSH CHURCH AID

It is time to return your Bush Church Aid boxes to the Parish Office for Joyleen to count. She is looking for someone to help her carry the coins to the bank too. BCA Boxes need to be returned by Sunday 2nd May 2021.

CHANGES TO COVID RESTRICTIONS

Capacity changes introduced on Wednesday 31st mean that we can now go to 75% of full capacity. Please note that masks are not required unless a venue chooses to operate at 100% capacity. We do not need to do that as 75% will allow us to easily have all the numbers we need. New COVID safe plans are on display in our churches.

Let's continue to be a COVIDSAFE church

PRAYER REQUESTS – PUBLIC AND PRIVATE

Prayer requests for Sunday intercessions can be given to the parish office and added to the Sunday prayer list for a time. Please note that people should give their permission to have their name added to this list. We also appreciate updates on their progress and in the event of good news, people can be removed from the list. If you would like prayers for yourself or someone else but confidentially, rather than on the public list, then please speak to one of the clergy (or Sandy Anderson at St Martin's). There is a dedicated team of prayer people in the parish who will pray for you. If you feel called to this ministry of prayer please speak to one of the clergy.
