SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 11TH JULY 2021

WORSHIP THEME: Lavishing Grace

Parish Priest's Reflection

Can we really understand how much God lavishes his love upon us? Ephesians 1:4-5 remind us we were chosen before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless. We are adopted to be his children for God's own will too. God's love for us seems immeasurable and insurmountable until we look again from a different direction. The song "If I Could Look Through Your Eyes" by Greg Gerguson helps us imagine a glimpse of God's grace for us. When we realise the depth of God's abundant love for us, we can put aside all acts of justification to ourselves and others that we are God's beloved, if only we could see we just need to keep our eyes on our God, our ears a listening, and being at the ready for all God has for us and as a community. - Rev'd Michele

If I Could Look Through Your Eyes © 1989 Greg Gerguson

*If I could look through Your eyes,
I'd see there's no way to impress You, and I wouldn't even try;
I'd stop tryin' to prove I'm worthy, and I'd take off the disguise,
if I could look through Your eyes.*

*And I would see that I'm precious, I would know that I'm prized;
I'd know Your love never changes, if I could look through Your eyes.*

*If I saw my value to You,
I'd see Your love for me remains despite the foolish things I do;
and I'd see Your love for what it is: unshakeable and true,
if I saw my value to You.*

*And I would see that I'm precious, I would know that I'm
prized;
I'd know Your love never changes, if I could look through Your eyes.*

I want to see what You see – I want to recognize the treasured prize You say You see in me;

*I want to give up tryin' to earn the love You're offering for free
– I want to see what You see*

Rev'd Michele

Most Holy God, lavish your grace upon us this day,
remind us you have chosen
us as your children.
Encourage our hearts as we seek to live as your people.
In the name of your blessed son, Amen.

Sentence

Who shall stand in the Lord's holy place? Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their hands to what is false. Psalm 24.3-4

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God,

open our eyes to see your hand at work in the splendour of creation and in the beauty of human life. Help us to cherish the gifts that surround us, to share our blessings with our sisters and brothers, and to experience the joy of life in your presence; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

2 Samuel 6.1-5, 12b-19

A Reading from the second book of Samuel

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. It was told King David, 'The Lord has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.' So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod.

So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord ; and she despised him in her heart. They brought in the ark of the Lord , and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord . When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24: 1-6, 9-10

A.P.B.A. page 244

- 1 The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it:
the compass of the world and those who dwell therein.
- 2 For he has founded it upon the seas:
and established it upon the waters.
- 3 Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord:
or who shall stand in his holy place?
- 4 Those who have clean hands and a pure heart:
who have not set their soul upon idols, nor sworn their oath to a lie.
- 5 They shall receive blessing from the Lord:
and recompense from the God of their salvation.
- 6 Of such a kind as this are those who seek him:
those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- 9 Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 Who is the King of glory?:
the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Second Reading

Ephesians 1.3-10

A reading from letter to the Ephesians

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel

Mark 6.14-29

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him.

But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.'

She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

COVID restrictions returned to what we previously had. Remember to register your attendance each time you come to church (either by QR code or on the slips of paper), please sanitise your hands before communion and please social distance where possible. Our current COVID safe plan still advises us to avoid hugging, kissing and hand-shaking where possible. Whilst some people associate regularly and are comfortable being physically close, there are some in our congregation who are immuno-compromised and need to observe this more strictly. Let's care for each other.
