EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 18TH JULY 2021

WORSHIP THEME: Building Without Walls

David's Reflection: Compassion

Jesus saw a great crowd and he had compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. (Mark 6:34) Compassion means getting inside vulnerable people's skin and there are plenty of them around. Societal angst, depression and dysfunction appear to be at an all-time high.

Coupled with Covid 19, an increasingly litigious society makes people more wary of getting involved in anything.

God wants all people to be happy and whole, to know the blissful certainty of being wanted and loved. The Christian is called actively to promote goodness, beauty and grace in this life. We also need to be social activists where we discern, below the surface of life's tragedies, things that can be changed to make this world a better and a safer place. We are called to be the voice, the hands, the feet, the touch of Christ in this world.

There is a big difference between mere sympathy and genuine compassion. Jesus perceived the real needs of others, the woman at the well, a tax collector named Zacchaeus, the blind, the lame, the outcast, the proud, the crowds, the hungry in body and in spirit; the grieving. He came alongside them; he had compassion. They found healing, new life, salvation. They were filled to overflowing. Frank Weston, Bishop of Zanzibar truly affirmed the Christian balance when he said, "I cannot worship Christ in the Sacrament unless I also tend to Christ in the gutter". Unlike mere sympathy, it involves love in action. You can have sympathy but not do much about it. But compassion moves you into action. You must DO compassion.

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

As he went ashore, Jesus saw a great crowd; and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Mark 6.34

Prayer of the Day

Pray Eternal God,
author of our life and end of our pilgrimage:
guide us by your word and Spirit amid all perils and temptations,
that we may not wander from your way,
but may run our course in safety
until we come to our eternal rest in you;
through the grace of Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

2 Samuel 7.1-14a

A Reading from the second book of Samuel

Now when the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, 'See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent.' Nathan said to the king, 'Go, do all that you have in mind; for the Lord is with you.' But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the Lord: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle.

Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?' Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.

And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house.

When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 89.21-38

A.P.B.A. page 316-317

- 21 'I have found my servant David:
and anointed him with my holy oil.
- 22 'My hand shall uphold him:
and my arm shall strengthen him.
- 23 'No enemy shall deceive him:
nor shall the wicked hurt him.
- 24 'I will crush his adversaries before him:
and strike down those that hate him.
- 25 'My faithfulness and loving-kindness shall be with him:
and through my name his head shall be lifted high.
- 26 'I will set the hand of his dominion
upon the Western Sea:
and his right hand shall stretch to the streams of Mesopotamia.
- 27 'He will call to me "You are my Father:
my God, and the Rock of my salvation."
- 28 'I will make him my first-born son:
and highest among the kings of the earth.
- 29 'I will ever maintain my loving-kindness toward him:
and my covenant with him shall stand firm.
- 30 'I will establish his line for ever:
and his throne like the days of heaven.

Second Reading

Ephesians 2.13-22

But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, so that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it.

So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

He destined us for adoption as his children, through Christ Jesus, according to the good pleasure of his will.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 6.30-34, 53-56

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Mark Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat.

When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the market-places, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

COVID RESTRICTIONS

Currently community singing in church will not be possible. COVID restrictions have returned to what we previously had a couple of weeks ago.

Remember to register your attendance each time you come to church either by QR code or on the slips of paper.

Sanitise your hands before communion and social distance where possible.

Our current COVID safe plan still advises us to avoid hugging, kissing and hand-shaking where possible. Whilst some people associate regularly and are comfortable being physically close, there are some in our congregation who are immuno-compromised and need to observe this more strictly.

Let's continue to care for each other.

Let's continue to be a COVIDSAFE church
