TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
SUNDAY 15TH AUGUST 2021
WORSHIP THEME: QUALITY TIME

Reflection from Michele

The past 18 months has changed our attitudes in many ways. We value the time spent with family and friends, more so as its unpredictable to guess when the once powerless borders will become a ring of steel. We travel when the boarder opens or restrictions ease, or run the gauntlet to dodge the lock down. Between lockdowns and restrictions, we are busy and enjoy what we love to do because we never know when that will be taken away. Then lament was we wait for the once banned activity to return. This sounds like a statement of how to live a fast life today, and many are around the state, the country, the world must.

Where lockdowns force us to live for today, can our focus be on both survival during covidtide and being heavenly bound people? While the ban on singing appears a control mechanism of current times, we adapt. St Paul in Romans 2.12 reminds us

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

Are our sights focused on renewing our minds through fellowship, scripture, prayer and allowing God to discern all that happens in our lives? This discernment starts simply, identifying who is missing from our services and groups? Followed by contacting the person and praying for the next step. Then identifying what is missing from our faith praxis and how the gap can be filled. Then pray without ceasing. Talk and with others to understand how and what can start or return when its safe and an appropriate time.

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

Jesus said, 'Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them.' John 6.56

Prayer of the Day

Everliving God, your Son, Jesus Christ, gave himself as living bread for the life of the world: give us such a knowledge of his presence that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life to serve you continually; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in unity with the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

1 Kings 2.10-12; 3.3-14

A Reading from the first book of the Kings

Then David slept with his ancestors, and was buried in the city of David. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned for seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David; only, he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places. The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt-offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, 'Ask what I should give you.'

And Solomon said, 'You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart towards you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?'

It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, 'Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honour all your life; no other king shall compare with you. If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life.'

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalms 111:1-4, 9-10

A.P.B.A. page 343

- 1 O praise the Lord. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart:
in the company of the upright and among the congregation.
- 2 The works of the Lord are great:
and studied by all who take delight in them.
- 3 His deeds are majestic and glorious:
and his righteousness stands for ever.
- 4 His marvellous acts have won him a name to be remembered:
the Lord is gracious and merciful.
- 9 He sent redemption to his people, he ordained his covenant for ever:
holy is his name and worthy to be feared.
- 10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and of good understanding are those that keep his commandments:
his praise shall endure for ever.

Second Reading

Ephesians 5.15-20

A reading from letter to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters, be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

All who eat my flesh and drink my blood
live in me and I in them, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6.51-58

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said to the crowd: 'I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?'

So Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
