WORSHIP THEME: CHALLENGING QUESTIONS

Welcome to worship today! If you are visiting or new to our church please see the welcome section on the back of this news sheet

Priest's Reflection – Rev Andrew

The Book of Job is filled with challenging questions. The primary question the book examines is the suffering of the innocent. The righteous man Job remains faithful to God despite having every reason to curse God for the suffering he endures. In the end, blessings will come upon him once again but there are many challenges to his faith along the way. The Gospel reading today is the perennial favourite of Jesus welcoming the little children. Both these readings provide good inspiration as we commence our Operation Christmas Child – Shoeboxes of Love appeal. It is always a wonderful sight every year to see the growing pile of shoeboxes around the pulpit as they are brought in. Please collect your shoebox and instruction leaflet and bring it back by Sunday 24th October.

Please also take a few moments to complete our Parish Vision-Check Survey. Responses are coming in and we would like to see as many parishioners as possible participating in this survey.

Anglican Parish of Glenelg Vision-check Survey.

How are we travelling and where to next?

You can fill in the survey by using this link.

Please do this by Monday 11th October.

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.

Mark 10.15

Prayer of the Day

O God, your Son has taught us that we must receive your sovereign rule like a little child: help us to turn to you in faith and simplicity of heart, so that we may receive your blessing and enter the kingdom your Son has promised; through the same Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

First Reading

Job 1.1; 2.1-10

A reading from the book of Job

There was once a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil.

One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord.

The Lord said to Satan, 'Where have you come from?' Satan answered the Lord, 'From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it.' The Lord said to Satan, 'Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil. He still persists in his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him for no reason.'

Then Satan answered the Lord, 'Skin for skin! All that people have they will give to save their lives. But stretch out your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face.' The Lord said to Satan, 'Very well, he is in your power; only spare his life.'

So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes.

Then his wife said to him, 'Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die.' But he said to her, 'You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?' In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God

Psalm 26:1-8

A.P.B.A. page 248

1 Give judgement for me, O Lord, for I have walked in my integrity:

I have trusted in the Lord and not wavered.

2 Put me to the test, O Lord, and prove me:

try my mind and my heart.

3 For your steadfast love has been ever before my eyes:

and I have walked in your truth.

4 I have not sat with deceivers:

nor consorted with the hypocrites;

5 I hate the assembly of the wicked:

I will not sit with the ungodly.

6 I wash my hands in innocence, O Lord:

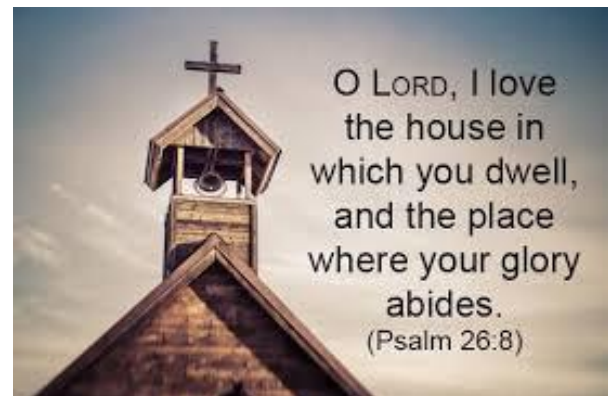

that I may go about your altar,

7 And lift up the voice of thanksgiving:

to tell of all your marvellous works.

8 Lord, I love the house of your habitation:

and the place where your glory dwells.

Second Reading

Hebrews 1:1-9

A reading from the book of Hebrews

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds.

He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

For to which of the angels did God ever say, 'You are my Son; today I have begotten you'? Or again, 'I will be his Father, and he will be my Son'? And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, 'Let all God's angels worship him.' Of the angels he says, 'He makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire.'

But of the Son he says, 'Your throne, O God, is for ever and ever, and the righteous sceptre is the sceptre of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

*'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them;
for it is to these that the kingdom of God belongs.'*

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 10:13-16

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

For the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

TEMPORARY CHANGE TO OFFICE STAFF FOR OCTOBER

From Tuesday 28th September, while Hewina is recovering from hip replacement surgery, the office will still be open from for the usual hours of 9.30am – 2.30pm Tuesday – Friday. Thanks to Anthea Smith, Janice Doyle, Ros Mortimer and Sandy Anderson for keeping the office running. Deborah Thornton-Wakeford and Jo Mintern will be assisting Fridays in October along with our Parish Clergy.

SUNDAY KIDS

The Sunday Kids program will be in recess until October 17th.

FUNERAL SERVICE FOR NEVILLE CORDES

Neville's funeral will be held this Wednesday. Numbers are restricted to 150 people. Andrew is co-ordinating numbers with Ros and the family, so if you wish to attend, please let Andrew know and we will confirm whether there is capacity or not. The funeral will be live-streamed.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD – SHOEBOXES OF LOVE

Shoeboxes are available this morning. Please take an instruction brochure as well. The parish will cover the $10 per box cost from our mission budget so you only need to fill the box with appropriate gifts. Each year volunteers from Adelaide churches help in processing all the boxes for shipping. If you are interested in helping in the processing centre, please speak to Rev. Michele.

PARISH VISION SURVEY

Its time for a health-check and a vision-check. During these strange times the usual sorts of vision events are not as feasible as usual, but the need for vision and purpose as a community is even more vital. Please fill in the online survey in the coming couple of weeks. <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/GRWXMLM5>

CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL 2021 – WEEKLY UPDATE 3RD OCT

Opening Night – Wed 1st Dec 7-9pm

Festival Dates - Thu 2nd & Fri 3rd Dec 11am-4pm; Sat 4th Dec 11am-3pm

Did you know that only rich people used to have a whole tree in their homes? For the poor, they would bring in branches of evergreen and decorate those on the mantelpiece of their fireplaces. Decorated trees were left outside and were generally a community endeavour to decorate.

CAKE/BAKE STALL - Many thanks to those who have contacted me with their generous contributions. There is always room for more though and extra goodies are always welcome be they sweet OR savoury. A sign up sheet will also be available from the front office at a later date.

RAFFLE - Suzanne McAdam has kindly offered to co-ordinate our awesome CTF raffle. If you have any donations or can help in any way, please contact me. Many thanks again to the parishioners who have already helped with some amazing prizes.

Watch this space for more weekly updates!

If you'd like to help in any way please contact Blake McInnes

SAVE THE DATE! TELL YOUR FRIENDS! GET INVOLVED!

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
