WORSHIP THEME: THE REIGN OF CHRIST

Welcome to worship today! If you are visiting or new to our church please see the welcome section on the back of this news sheet

Priest's Reflection – Rev Andrew

Today we celebrate the feast of the Reign of Christ, always remembering that Christ is a servant king, not one “enthroned in easy state to reign” as W. H Vanstone, wrote in his hymn “Morning Glory, Starlit Sky”. In Christ the king we see that “here is God, whose arms of love, aching, spent, the world sustain.” Our Gospel reading points to this potential misunderstanding about kingship where Jesus has to say to Pilate: “My kingdom is not of this world.” Thus this feast day re-orientes us to the true nature of Christ’s lordship, that he rules from the cross, from the empty tomb and from his place within the trinity of love. This is a fitting closing statement to our liturgical year.

Another colloquial title for this day was “Stir Up Sunday” this was a humorous reference to the old Book of Common Prayer collect for the day, which prompted people to go home and stir up their Christmas Puddings. For old time’s sake and because it is a good prayer we can still pray

Stir up, we pray you, O Lord,
The wills of your faithful people,
That they, plenteously bringing forth
the fruit of good works,
may by you be plenteously rewarded;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Stir Up
Sunday

Today's Worship Resources

Sentence

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and well-being and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing Revelation 5:12

Prayer of the Day

Everlasting God, whose will is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, our Lord and Monarch; grant that the people of the earth, so often divided, may be liberated and brought together under his gentle and loving rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14

A reading from the Prophet of Daniel

As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne; his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire. A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence. A thousand thousand served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him. The court sat in judgement, and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven. And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him. To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 93

A.P.B.A. page 321

The Lord is king, he is robed in majesty;
the Lord is robed, he is girded with strength.
He has established the world; it shall never be moved;
your throne is established from of old;
you are from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O Lord,
the floods have lifted up their voice;
the floods have lifted up their roaring.
More majestic than the thunders of mighty waters,
More majestic than the waves of the sea,
Majestic on high is the Lord!
Your decrees are very sure;
Holiness befits your house,
O Lord, for evermore.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty."
Revelation 1:8 NIV

Second Reading

Revelation 1:4b-8

A reading from the book of Revelation

Grace to you and peace from God who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega', says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus said, " Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Alleluia.

Gospel

John 18:33-37

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you Jesus Christ.

Pilate asked Jesus, 'Are you the King of the Jews?' Jesus answered, 'Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?' Pilate replied, 'I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?' Jesus answered, 'My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.' Pilate asked him, 'So you are a king?' Jesus answered, 'You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

COVID VACCINATION UPDATE

Parishioners may appreciate knowing that all of parish staff, Andrew, Michele, Margaret and Hewina are all double vaccinated. At our recent Annual Diocesan Synod the following motion was passed: “That this Synod endorses the Archbishop’s encouragement for all Christians to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 for the wellbeing of all individuals and the community (unless there are medical reasons vaccination cannot be received).”

It is certainly the representative view of this church that there is nothing within the Christian faith to prevent us receiving vaccinations, and is a practical way we show love for neighbour. Having said that there will be no discrimination against people on this basis other than what is mandated by our Government health directives.

CURRENT COVID RESTRICTIONS – UPDATED 23RD SEPTEMBER FROM SA HEALTH:

2. Masks must be worn indoors for public events and areas, including worship. People who readings and preaching may remove them when presenting. Singing can take place but masks must be worn.

4. Masks may be removed for receiving communion. Please sanitise your hands prior to receiving and observe 1.5m social distancing when queuing.
