THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

SUNDAY 20TH FEBRUARY 2022

WORSHIP THEME: LIVING AS DISCIPLES

Priest's Message

Last week we considered the Blessings and Woes that Jesus presents in the Sermon on the Plain (Lk 6:17-49). Today we hear the next part of that sermon in which Jesus outlines the expected generous behaviour of his disciples. His challenges to us continue with exhortations to love our enemies, do good to those who hate us, bless those who curse us, and pray for those who oppress us. We are encouraged to turn the other cheek, give to those who ask and if someone takes our coat, give our shirt also! We are to follow the Golden Rule – treat others as we would like to be treated. We should not judge nor condemn others but rather be giving and forgiving. We are even asked to be as merciful as God is merciful!

The ethical standard is set very high and many will respond by feeling that we are failing to live up to Jesus' calling. Yet we are also familiar with the stories of saints and famous Christians who have demonstrated just such wonderful kingdom values and their lives continue to inspire us. We may also personally know people who have taught us how to live in such a generous way. We take inspiration from them and we give thanks for the times we can, at least in part, live up to these kingdom values, and we pray for strength, perseverance, courage and joy to continue in our Christian walk.

Come on a Lenten Journey with Luke-Acts

*With next Sunday's pew sheet, you will receive a 40 day reading guide to the books of Luke and Acts. I am inviting you to follow this with me through the season of Lent as a personal discipline. If you would like to receive a daily emailed reflection and prayer matching the set reading for the day, please email me to register your interest. Luke-Acts was dedicated to Theophilus (a name meaning 'Friend of God' or 'Loved by God'). Whilst some suggest Theophilus was a real person others suggest that this was written for any friend of God who cared to read it. Join me, as a friend of God and as beloved by God, as we journey through Lent with this amazing Gospel. Rev. Andrew

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Sentence

Love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. You will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

Luke 6.35

Prayer

God of compassion,
keep before us the love you have revealed in your Son,
who prayed even for his enemies.

In our words and deeds help us to be like him,
through whom we pray,
Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 45.3-11, 15

A reading from the book of Genesis

Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come closer to me.' And they came closer. He said, 'I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life.

For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither ploughing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt. Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, "Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have.

I will provide for you there—since there are five more years of famine to come—so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty." And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 37.3-7, 10-11

A.P.B.A.page 258

- 3 Trust in the Lord and do good:
and you shall dwell in the land
and feed in safe pastures.
- 4 Let the Lord be your delight:
and he will grant you your heart's desire.
- 5 Commit your way to the Lord:
trust him, and he will act.
- 6 He will make your righteousness
shine as clear as the light:
and your innocence as the noonday.
- 7 Be still before the Lord, and wait patiently for him:
do not be vexed when someone prospers,
when they put their evil purposes to work.
- 10 In a little while the ungodly shall be no more:
you will look for them in their place,
but they will not be found.
- 11 But the meek shall possess the land:
and enjoy the abundance of peace.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15.45-50

A reading from the first letter to the Corinthians

It is written, 'The first man, Adam, became a living being'; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Jesus Said: "I give you a new commandment:
Love one another, just as I have loved you."

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 6.27-38

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus said to his disciples, 'I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

'If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

'Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

LENTEN STUDY

We will be using the Lenten Study “Repairing the Breach” prepared by ABM. “Repairing the Breach examines what it means to be people of healing in a broken world. Written by a community of friends for a people of mission – and illustrated with stunning images painted by acclaimed artist, Carol Aust, ‘Repairing the Breach’ inspires, provokes and cajoles. A truly Australian resource for parishes, study groups and individuals. The Mission of God is to repair the breach. The people of God are participants in that work.” Michele will be leading this group on Thursdays 10th, 17th, 24th and 31st March at 7:30pm. See Michele for a book and more details.
