SUNDAY 27TH FEBRUARY 2022

WORSHIP THEME: HOLY MYSTERY

Priest's Message

One cannot help but reflect on today's Gospel reading in the light of the unfolding tragedy in Ukraine. Jesus is transfigured before the disciples in a promise of resurrection. Peter and the disciples want to stay in this place of light and glory, but Jesus knows that he must descend the mountain and face the reality of the cross. Just a few verses later he predicts that "the Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands" (Luke 9:44). Betrayal, violence, prejudice, oppression, hatred and evil have plagued human history and continue to do so. This is a sad reality of our world. Jesus' life, death and resurrection offer Christians a way to live and a way to hope when evil seems to be taking over. Ultimately, even in the most desperate of situations, God and God's life will prevail. We cannot always see this possibility and indeed sometimes it seems it will never come, but we hope and trust in the promises of God, continue to pray fervently and seek to live as people of faith, hope and love. We can live no other way.

The Archbishops of Canterbury and York have provided a prayer for the Ukraine which is printed on the next page which we will include in our services this week and you may like to use it in your personal prayers as well. May God's peace be with you.

* NATIONAL CHURCH LIFE SURVEY 2021 – TODAY *

Please complete a National Church Life Survey form this week. Paper copies are available at church at all services this Sunday and Thursday. Please return next Sunday or to the parish office during the week. Alternatively you can complete the survey online at <https://attendersurvey.ncls.org.au/>

St Peter's ANA12202

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. John 1:14

Prayer of the Day

O God, glorious and faithful,
You reveal the beauty
of your face to those who seek you with a sincere heart:
Strengthen us in faith
to embrace the mystery
of the cross,
And open our hearts
to its transforming power,
So that, clinging in love
to your will for us,
We may walk as followers of your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion
to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear,
that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Archbishop Justin Welby
Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

First Reading

Exodus 34: 29-35

A reading from the book of Exodus

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God.

When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterwards all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Hear the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99

A.P.B.A.page 325

- 1 The Lord is king, let the nations tremble:
 he is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake.
- 2 The Lord is great in Zion:
 he is high above all nations.
- 3 Let them praise your great and terrible name:
 for holy is the Lord.
- 4 The Mighty One is king and loves justice:
 you have established equity,
 you have dealt righteousness and justice in Jacob.
- 5 O exalt the Lord our God:
 and bow down before his footstool, for he is holy.
- 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests,
 and Samuel among those who call upon his name:
 they called to the Lord and he answered.
- 7 He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud:
 they kept to his teachings and the law that he gave them.
- 8 You answered them, O Lord our God:
 you were a forgiving God to them,
 and pardoned their wrongdoing.
- 9 O exalt the Lord our God:
 and bow down towards his holy hill,
 for the Lord our God is holy.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 3.12 - 4.2

A reading from the second letter to the Corinthians

Since we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed.

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practise cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!'

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9.28-36

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said.

While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE SEASON OF LENT IN OUR PARISH

SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE DINNER

Tuesday 1st March in the St Peter's Community Centre at 5:45pm for 6:00pm.

$5 donation and BYO drinks. See the RSVP sheet at the church. We need a few people to bring savoury toppings (like savoury chicken, curry, satay, Bolognese etc.) or sweet toppings (like jam, lemons, cream, maple syrup etc). Whilst Parish Council felt this was an important fellowship tradition to continue, if you feel uncertain about gathering in groups or are feeling unwell please feel free to not come.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE – 7PM WEDNESDAY 2ND MARCH.

There will be a Ash Wednesday service to commence the season of Lent, this Wednesday 2nd March at 7pm at St Peter's. If you would like to return Palm Crosses to church this Sunday they can be used to create the ashes for the service.

LENTEN GROUP STUDY

We will be using the Lenten Study “Repairing the Breach” prepared by ABM. “Repairing the Breach examines what it means to be people of healing in a broken world. Written by a community of friends for a people of mission – and illustrated with stunning images painted by acclaimed artist, Carol Aust.” A full version of ‘Repairing the Breach’ can be viewed online (but not downloaded) at https://imags.com.au/published/abm_repairing_the_breach

Michele will be leading this group on Thursdays 10th, 17th, 24th and 31st March at 7:30pm. Sign up on the sheet at church and see Rev Michele for a study book.

LENTEN JOURNEY WITH LUKE-ACTS – A READING GUIDE

Available today a 40 day reading guide to the books of Luke and Acts. I am inviting you to join this Lent on a journey through Luke's writings. If you would like to receive a daily emailed reflection and prayer matching the set reading for the day, please email me to register your interest. Luke-Acts was dedicated to Theophilus (a name meaning 'Friend of God' or 'Loved by God') . Whilst some suggest Theophilus was a real person others suggest that this was written for any friend of God who cared to read it. Join me, as a friend of God and as beloved by God, as we journey through Lent with this amazing Gospel. Rev Andrew.

CURRENT COVID RESTRICTIONS

QR or paper check-in still required. Masks must be worn at all times (unless you have a medical condition). Readers, preachers etc may remove their masks for communication purposes. We should maintain physical distancing where possible.

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
