Weekly News and Pew Sheet

FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT SUNDAY 10TH APRIL 2022

WORSHIP THEME: BLESSED IS THE ONE

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew sheet

Priest's Message

Palm Sunday is filled with hope and expectation. Even for us 21st Century Christians who know well the liturgical pattern of this week and the path that Jesus must walk, there is a sense of joining in with hopeful optimism of the palm-waving crowd. We too can shout: 'Hosanna, Lord save us!' We too can shout: 'Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!'

What were the crowds hoping for and expecting in Jerusalem that day? Liberation from the Romans? A peaceful existence? Enough for their families to live on? An overturning of unjust structures? Blessings from God?

What might we be clamouring for in our time? Peace in Ukraine? Freedom from the pandemic? A more inclusive society and church? Renewal in the church? Blessings from God?

Perhaps we can relate to Palm Sunday because like the people in the Jerusalem crowd that day we also grasp for a sense of hope and an expectation for the salvation of God. The crowd were to misunderstand the nature of Jesus' kingship and likewise we sometimes misunderstand what God is offering us. So perhaps the invitation of Palm Sunday as we enter Holy Week is to have expectant hearts but open minds. Open to what God has to teach us. Open to what God is calling us to. Open to a deeper sense of our vocation as Christians in this time and place. Perhaps communally we can pray

Speak Lord, your servants are listening. Amen.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

At the name of Jesus, every knee shall bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2.10–11

Prayer of the Day

God of all, you gave your only-begotten Son to take the form of a servant, and to be obedient even to death on a cross: give us the same mind that was in Christ Jesus that, sharing in his humility, we may come to be with him in his glory, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 50:4-9a

A reading from the book of Isaiah

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens - wakens my ear
to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord God has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards.
I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 118:1-2, 19-29

A.P.B.A page 347

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good :
his mercy endures for ever.
Let Israel now proclaim :
that his mercy endures for ever.
Open me the gates of righteousness :
and I will enter and give thanks to the Lord.
This is the gate of the Lord :
the righteous shall enter it.
I will praise you, for you answered me :
and have become my salvation.
O Lord, save us, we pray :
O Lord, send us prosperity.
Blessed is he who comes, in the name of the Lord :
from the house of the Lord we bless you.
The Lord is God, and he has given us light :
guide the festal throng up to the horns of the altar.
You are my God and I will praise you :
you are my God, I will exalt you.
O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good :
and his mercy endures for ever.ower of my enemies
and from my persecutors.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD.

Second Reading

Philippians 2:5-11

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death - even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9:28-40

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, "Why are you untying it?" just say this: "The Lord needs it." '

So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, 'Why are you untying the colt?' They said, 'The Lord needs it.' Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it.

As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying,

'Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!
Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!'

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, order your disciples to stop.' He answered, 'I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
