Weekly News and Pew Sheet

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 24TH JULY 2022

WORSHIP THEME: FAITHFUL PRAYER

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew sheet

Priest's Message

In the time of Jesus, religious teachers, perhaps including John the Baptist, taught formulaic prayers to their followers, address God as holy or hallowed sets God apart from the world. Then proclaim the great hope: God's way of being and God's desire will be present in the world. This is followed by petitions asking God to provide for three basic needs – sustaining the world by providing food, restoring individuals and communities by forgiveness, and to protect the world. Then we can imagine God's reign will have come.

Prayer is the way we communicate with God, and God responds in many different ways. God will always hear and respond – not because we are worthy, not because we have the right formula, but because it is in God's nature to be generous and loving.

Dear God,
we pray for these three things, to love
you more dearly, to love you more clearly, and follow you more nearly every day. Amen

Based on the Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

The Anglican Parish of Glenelg acknowledges that we are meeting on the traditional country of the Kurna people of the Adelaide Plains. We recognise and respect their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship with the land. We acknowledge that they are of continuing importance to the Kurna people living today.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. Luke 11:9

Prayer of the Day

Provident Father,
with prayer your Son taught us always on our lips, help us so to see that we may truly find, so to ask that we may joyfully receive, and so knock that the door of mercy may be opened for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading

Hosea 1.2-10

A reading from the book of Hosea

When the Lord first spoke through Hosea, the Lord said to Hosea, 'Go, marry a promiscuous woman and have children with her, for like an adulterous wife this land is guilty of unfaithfulness to the Lord.' So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

And the Lord said to him, 'Name him Jezreel; for in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel. On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.'

She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then the Lord said to him, 'Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have pity on the house of Israel or forgive them. But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will save them by the Lord their God; I will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by war, or by horses, or by horsemen.' When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. Then the Lord said, 'Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not my people and I am not your God.'

Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people', it shall be said to them, 'Children of the living God.'

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

8. I will hear what the Lord God will speak :
for he will speak peace to his people, to his faithful ones,
whose hearts are turned to him.
9. Truly his salvation is near to those that fear him :
and his glory shall dwell in our land.
10. Mercy and truth are met together :
righteousness and peace have kissed each other;
11. Truth shall flourish out of the earth :
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
12. The Lord will also give us all that is good :
and our land shall yield its plenty.
13. For righteousness shall go before him :
and tread the path before his feet.

Second ReadingColossians 2:6-19

A reading from the Letter to the Colossians

As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority.

In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands.

He set this aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it. Therefore do not let anyone condemn you in matters of food and drink or of observing festivals, new moons, or sabbaths.

These are only a shadow of what is to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. Do not let anyone disqualify you, insisting on self-abasement and worship of angels, dwelling on visions, puffed up without cause by a human way of thinking, and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 11.1-13

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, 'When you pray, say:

Father, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

Give us each day our daily bread.

And forgive us our sins,

for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us.

And do not bring us to the time of trial.'

And he said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him." And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

'So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!’

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

NEW INITIATIVE FOR FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH AT 10AM

At the start of this year, we said that we were discerning a new direction for the first Sunday of the month away from the JAM format and toward a more all-age friendly worship. With some experimentation in the first six months, we have had a shorter format, included children from the start of the service, included a children's activity and a reflection and intercessions for the adults. Whilst these changes have tried to meet a diversity of needs our discernment for future directions has continued. Parish Council has agreed to fund a new initiative centred around a Saturday 'creative music workshop' and Sunday worship involvement focussed on Primary aged children.

JuMP – JoUrney of Musical Praise

Free music and singing workshops on the first Saturday afternoon of each month followed by creative musical contribution during our worship together the next day at our 10am Family Worship service. These fun creative sessions will be run by renowned local singer and music educator Elizabeth McCall, and acclaimed Jazz violinist, composer and orchestrator, Julian Ferraretto.

Music school and worship times (Saturday 2-4:30pm & Sunday 10-11am) on these dates 6/7 August; 3/4 September; 1/2 October; 5/6 November; 3/4 December.

Children who have been playing instruments for more than 1 year are welcome to bring them (please indicate instrument and playing level when you register). No experience needed for singers. To register your initial interest and for more information please email parish.office@glenelganglican.org.au

PRAYING FOR LAMBERTH CONFERENCE 26 JULY – 8TH AUGUST IN CANTERBURY

Bishops from around our nation and the world, and our Adelaide based Bishops have arrived safely in the UK. Lamberth Conference starts this Tuesday.

In the initial three days, participants will be asked –

What does it mean to be God's Church for God's World? The conference community will start the event in prayer, Bible study and contemplation. Hosted at the University and Canterbury Cathedral, the days will be devoted to seeking God's wisdom and calling as the Lambeth Conference journey commences, walking, listening, and witnessing together.

A Prayer for the Conference from The Community of Hope Weavers, Church of England

Gracious God, we thank you that in Jesus you reconcile the world and all who are in it to yourself. Touch the hearts of those attending the Lambeth Conference to extend your peace to all, and to work for the reconciliation of all creation.

Bless them with your grace and love as they connect with one another and with you. May your Spirit of peace hover over their conversations and their resting times, and may your gracious will be done in the life of the Anglican Communion and in the whole of your precious world. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Prince of Peace. Amen.

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Welcome Visitors!

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
