Weekly News and Pew Sheet

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 7TH AUGUST 2022

WORSHIP THEME: TREASURED DYNAMIC FAITH

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew sheet

Priest's Message

As a young boy I really loved Tintin books (actually I still do!) and my first experience of Herge's works was the dual stories of "The Secret of the Unicorn" and "Red Rackham's Treasure". Across this storyline Tintin and Captain Haddock embark on a quest to find some pirate treasure. They discover clues leading them to a tropical island where they think they will find the treasure, but it turns out the treasure is actually in the cellar of Haddock's ancestral home all along!

There's a great message in that for us. We can spend so much energy looking for physical treasure just out of reach, always yearning for what we don't have, that we can ignore the fact that the treasure is already ours and right under our noses.

In today's Gospel reading Jesus speaks of treasure, but it is not buried pirate treasure in a rotting wooden chest, but rather treasure in a spiritual purse that never wears out. This is treasure in God. The treasure of faith, hope and love. The treasure of relationships with family, friends and community. The treasure of humility, joyfulness and generosity. Let us treasure these things for, as Jesus says, where our treasure is, there our heart will be also (Luke 12:34)

Where your treasure is,
there your heart will be also.
Luke 12:34

Welcome to the children who participated in our first ♪ JuMP! music session yesterday. It is a joy to share the gift of praise, music and song together in our 10am worship today. Thank-you to Liz, Julian and all who helped.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen. Hebrews 11:1

Prayer of the Day

God of justice, Your word is light and truth,
Let your light shine on us to restore us
that we may walk in your way
Help us to seek justice and do good in everything.
We pray in the name of Jesus, our prince of peace. Amen

First Reading

Isaiah 1:1a, 10-20

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem: What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the Lord; I have had enough of burnt-offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats. When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand?

Trample my courts no more; bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation - I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity. Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them. When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.

Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.

Come now, let us argue it out, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

1. The Lord our God, the Mighty One, has spoken:
and summoned the earth,
from the rising of the sun to its setting in the west.
2. From Zion, perfect in beauty:
God has shone out in glory.
3. Our God is coming, he will not keep silent:
before him is devouring fire,
and tempest whirls about him.
4. He calls to the heavens above:
and to the earth, so he may judge his people.
5. 'Gather to me my faithful ones:
those who by sacrifice made a covenant with me.'
6. The heavens shall proclaim his righteousness:
for God himself is judge.
7. 'Listen my people, and I will speak:
O Israel, I am God your God, and I will give my testimony.
8. 'It is not for your sacrifices that I reprove you:
for your burnt-offerings are always before me.
14. 'Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving:
and pay your vows to the Most High.
15. 'Call upon me in the day of trouble:
I will bring you out, and you shall glorify me.'

Second Reading

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old - and Sarah herself was barren - because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, 'as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.'

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them. Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!
Be watchful and ready:
you know not when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 12:32-40

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.'

'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.'

'But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

We pray that you will pour out your Holy Spirit as you did at Pentecost. Help us Lord to have passion to read and receive your word. Send us revival and make us holy. Help us to give generously. ## ADVANCE NOTICE OF CITY/BAY FUN RUN

After a couple years on hold due to COVID, the City to Bay Fun Run is on again this year on Sunday 18th September (still 6 weeks away) which means we will be unable to hold services at St Peter's that morning due to roads being blocked off. (St Martin's Glenelg South will have their service as usual). Our practice pre-COVID was to have a Saturday 5pm service that weekend. Since COVID though we now have an online worship option. I would be interested to hear feedback from St Peter's congregations as to whether you would still like a Saturday service that weekend, possibly with a social event afterwards. There is little point putting something on if people won't come along so let's have a chat about it now and then we can start to put plans in place for that weekend.

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
