Weekly News and Pew Sheet

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 21ST AUGUST 2022

WORSHIP THEME: BOUNDARY-BREAKING LOVE

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew sheet

Priest's Message

Once again in the media there are reports of the Anglican Church splitting. This is not actually true, and you can read a statement by the Primate, Archbishop Geoff Smith, released this week in response to some Anglicans led by the former Archbishop of Sydney deciding to leave the Anglican Church and start a new church.

In contrast to this development, it has been really heartening to hear reports from bishops attending the recent Lambeth Conference of worldwide Anglican Bishops that, despite differences of opinion on issues like same-sex marriage, the bonds of collegiality and communion are stronger, and there was a commitment to continue to work together as one church. This attitude is encapsulated in a motion from the Adelaide Diocesan Synod of 2018 which acknowledged that there are people on different sides of the debate and that their views are sincerely held in the light of scripture and our understanding of the will of God. You can read the Primate's statement and that 2018 motion on the church noticeboards this morning.

Today's Gospel reading gives us something to reflect on about church divisions, because Jesus caused division in the synagogue. He broke the law. He healed on the Sabbath. The above art-work captures the shock on the faces of the onlookers in the background. But Jesus was motivated by boundary-breaking love, compassion, and a desire to include the marginalised in God's kingdom.

There will always be issues that threaten to divide believers. Jesus' example is to share God's love especially with those who need it most. God's saving love was experienced by others through his actions. We may earnestly pray that others may experience God's love through our actions as well.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

You, O Lord, are my hope, my trust from my youth.
Upon you have I leaned since my birth. Psalm 71:5-6

Prayer of the Day

God of grace, mercy, compassion, and courage,
may today be the day when we hear you.
May our hearts not be hard or cold.
May we hear you calling us past the edges.
May we discover new connections
where grace and healing, hope and justice, lift us up and open us to new dimensions of faith alive in you.
May we draw courage to challenge rules that bind and burden,
to bring joy in abundance where joy has been depleted.
Through Jesus our healing Lord, we pray. Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 1:4-10

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying, 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.' Then I said, 'Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.' But the Lord said to me, 'Do not say, "I am only a boy"; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.' Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me, 'Now I have put my words in your mouth. See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.'

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Psalm 71:1-6

A.P.B.A. Page 293

- 1 To you, Lord, have I come for shelter:
let me never be put to shame.
- 2 In your righteousness rescue and deliver me:
incline your ear to me and save me.

- 3 Be for me a rock of refuge, a fortress to defend me:
for you are my high rock, and my stronghold.
- 4 Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked:
from the grasp of the pitiless and unjust.
- 5 For you, Lord, are my hope:
you are my confidence, O God,
from my youth upward.
- 6 On you have I leaned since my birth:
you are he that brought me
out of my mother's womb,
and my praise is of you continually.

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-28

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them.

But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken - that is, created things - so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Happy are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest of perseverance.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 13:10-17

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.'

When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the Sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the Sabbath day.'

But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the Sabbath day?'

When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ANDREW'S FACEBOOK REFLECTION

Rev Andrew - My midweek Facebook reflection this week came in the wake of the media reports relating to the Diocese of the Southern Cross. In that Facebook post I quoted a reflection by Jordan Harrell (see image to the right). People have appreciated this, so I include it here. To see my 5 minute reflection about God's love and the importance of a Christlike approach to reading the bible. The link to that reflection is here.

https://fb.watch/e\_vnUn0tZ7/

Genocide is biblical.
Loving your enemy is biblical.
But only one is Christlike.
Slavery is biblical.
Chainbreaking is biblical.
But only one is Christlike.
Patriarchy is biblical.
Counter-cultural elevation of women is biblical.
But only one is Christlike.
Retributive violence is biblical.
Grace-filled restoration is biblical.
But only one is Christlike.
Segregation is biblical.
Unity is biblical.
But only one is Christlike.
Christ transforms, not the Bible. Be wary of those who know one but not the other.
