WORSHIP THEME: PERSEVERANCE

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew sheet

Priest's Message

A number of years ago the Church of England launched a controversial advertising campaign which you can see to the right. It was intended to get people thinking about their image of Jesus and to counter the idea that Jesus was somehow an insipid character just saying we should be nice to each other. The image used is purposely provocative and borrows from revolutionary imagery. It is true that Jesus spoke a lot about love but the "Gospel love" he preached and lived is a love that is courageous and strong – speaking out against injustice, including those on the margins, and fearlessly defying the authorities. If this image makes us a little uncomfortable then we are not alone as many of Jesus' listeners also felt uncomfortable.

The words in today's gospel are uncomfortable words. Jesus proclaims that he has come to bring fire and division! Wait a minute! What is going on here? What happened to gentle Jesus meek and mild? For context I recommend reading through the Gospel of Luke Chapters 11-14. Jesus is strong and stirring throughout this section of Luke. He calls people hypocrites, he calls King Herod a fox (in a direct message to him) and he has a number of woes for various people. This is tough stuff indeed. This gospel passage (and others like it) stops us from thinking the gospel is too cosy and comfortable. We are challenged and stirred into seeing that it is not always easy - there is sometimes a price to pay. Whilst the biggest opposition to being a Christian in this country may only be apathy or disparagement, in many other countries, Christianity is a far riskier and costlier path to take. Imagine how those Christians read these words and relate to them first-hand.

Yet, even in the midst of challenges to faith, challenges to fairness, justice, goodness and peace, we are encouraged to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking always to Jesus, who endured the cross and gives us eternal life.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and run with perseverance the race that is set before us.

Hebrews 12:1

Prayer of the Day

Ever living God, increase in us your gift of faith, that, forsaking sin and all that hinders us, we may run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 5:1-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watch-tower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?

And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down. I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and it shall be overgrown with briers and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting; he expected justice, but saw bloodshed; righteousness, but heard a cry!

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm 80.7-15,19

A.P.B.A. Page 307

Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:
show us the light of your countenance,
and we shall be saved.
You brought a vine out of Egypt:
you drove out the nations, and planted it in.
You cleared the ground before it:
and it struck root and filled the land.
The hills were covered with its shadow:
and its boughs were like the boughs of the great cedars.
It stretched out its branches to the sea:
and its tender shoots to the Great River.
Why then have you broken down its walls:
so that every passer-by can pluck its fruit?
The wild boar out of the woods roots it up:
and the locusts from the wild places devour it.
Turn to us again, O Lord of hosts:
look down from heaven, and see.
Bestow your care upon this vine:
the stock which your own right hand has planted.
Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:
show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Second Reading

Hebrews 11:29-32; 39-12:2

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned. By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days. By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets -
Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 12:49-56

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed! Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!

'From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three; they will be divided:

father against son and son against father,
mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

He also said to the crowds, 'When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, "It is going to rain"; and so it happens. And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, "There will be scorching heat"; and it happens. You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

SUNDAY 18TH SEPTEMBER – CITY/BAY FUN RUN

Thank you to all those who responded about the possibility of a Saturday afternoon service at 5:00pm on Saturday 17th September. There is certainly enough interest to proceed with that idea followed by a fellowship meal in the community centre. One suggestion is a pizza meal for a small cost for each person. This will save the pressure of having to cater. However, perhaps a few of us could volunteer to make a dessert to share. We will have more details soon.

For those who live south of Jetty Road and are not affected by road closures,
St Martin's Service will be held as normal on Sunday 18th at 8:45pm

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
