Weekly News and Pew Sheet

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST SATURDAY 17TH / SUNDAY 18TH SEPTEMBER 2022

WORSHIP THEME: PRAYERFUL LOVE

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew

Priest's Message

We might find it hard to reconcile the theme “Prayerful Love” with the Gospel parable about the dishonest manager. Consider this line in the parable: “the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light” [Luke 16:8]. Perhaps there is a challenge here for Christians to not be too naïve and innocent but rather to be shrewd with the right motivation. Perhaps the thing that can transform shrewdness into a Gospel behaviour is when it is done with “prayerful love” for the good of God’s kingdom. The letter to Timothy urges us to make “supplications, prayers, intercessions and thanksgivings for everyone” [1 Timothy 2:1]. We are given four encouragements to pray for everyone right up to our highest leaders. Prayer should always be the foundation of all our loving words and actions. Prayer forms us, motivates us, and guides us. The psalm tonight offers us a simple way to begin our praying: “Teach me your way O Lord and lead me in an even path” Amen.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. 2 Corinthians 8:9

Prayer of the day

O God, You are rich in love for your people: show us the treasure that endures and, when we are tempted by greed, call us back into your service and make us worthy to be entrusted with your wealth that never fails. We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

A reading from the Book of Jeremiah

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick. Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: 'Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?' ('Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?') 'The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.' For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 27:1, 9-14a

A.P.B.A. page 246

- ¹ The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear?: the Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
- ⁹ O Lord, hear my voice when I cry:
have mercy upon me and answer me.
- ¹⁰ My heart has said of you, 'Seek his face':
your face, Lord, I will seek.

- ¹¹ Do not hide your face from me:
or thrust your servant aside in displeasure;
¹² For you have been my helper:
do not cast me away or forsake me, O God of my salvation.
¹³ Though my father and my mother forsake me:
the Lord will take me up.
¹⁴ Teach me your way, O Lord:
and lead me in an even path.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 2:1-7

A reading from the first Letter to Timothy

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God;

there is also one mediator between God and humankind,
Christ Jesus, himself human,
who gave himself a ransom for all — this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia.

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor,
to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 16:1-13

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Then Jesus said to the disciples, 'There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, "What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer."

Then the manager said to himself, "What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes."

So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, "How much do you owe my master?" He answered, "A hundred jugs of olive oil." He said to him, "Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty." Then he asked another, "And how much do you owe?" He replied, "A hundred containers of wheat." He said to him, "Take your bill and make it eighty."

And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

'Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NOTICES

PARISH EMERGENCY FOOD MINISTRY

Our current needs include small/medium containers of fruit as well as instant noodles. All donations are very much appreciated. Thank you!

ST. MARTIN'S HALL BOOKINGS

Please note that St Martin's Hall is now booked regularly on Tuesdays and Wednesdays (6:45-10:00am) Thursdays (7:45-11:00am) for Lou's Ladies Fitness Classes.

BUSH CHURCH AID

BCA boxes are due for return for counting. Joyleen is looking for someone to take over this small task, beginning with this current return of boxes. Pat and Alan Beggs have offered to do it for half the year but cannot do it through the middle of the year, so a volunteer for the middle part of the year would be great.

GALS

Our next meeting is Tuesday, 27th September at St. Peter's Community Centre where we will gather for a cuppa and a chat.

REMINDER – THIS SUNDAY 18TH SEPTEMBER – CITY/BAY FUN RUN

No Sunday services at St Peter's, Sunday 18th September.

Holy Communion Service at 5:00pm, Saturday 17th September

Feel free just to come for the service even if you are not staying for the tea afterwards! For those south of Jetty Road St Martin's Communion service will be held as usual on Sunday 18th at 8:45am

Friday 23rd September is the final youth group for term 3. We'll be visiting Life FM studio and will be on air between 7 and 7.15pm talking to the host Maz during the Takeover show. Contact Michele for more information.

INTERESTED IN CONFIRMATION?

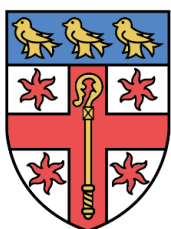

Bishop Denise Ferguson will be visiting our 10am service on Sunday 20th November. This is a great opportunity for those seeking confirmation.

Anyone interested in Confirmation (see APBA p.84), Reception into the Anglican Church (see p.96) and Affirmation of Faith (see p.91) Please speak to Rev Andrew or Rev Michele regarding participating in preparation sessions.

ADMISSION TO COMMUNION

Younger children (7-10 years) who are not yet ready to be confirmed can learn more about communion and receive their first communion. Preparation is done at home through a workbook with an introductory session with the priests. Minimum age is 7 years old. Speak to Rev Andrew or Rev Michele if you are interested.

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY'S VISIT TO ADELAIDE

Anglican Diocese of Adelaide

To celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the establishment of the Adelaide Diocese, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Reverend and Right Honourable Justin Welby is visiting us and there are two special events to which we are invited.

- A Diocesan Dinner will be held on Saturday, 8 October 2022, 6.00pm for 6.30pm, at the Adelaide Convention Centre, North Terrace. Tickets are only $50 per person and include a two-course meal and drinks. Dress code will be neat casual. 175 years of Adelaide Diocese
Rev. Michele has purchased one table of 10 for the parish of Glenelg. Five more seats are available. Please let Michele know if you'd like to come along. Please see the parish office for payment arrangements.
- Cathedral Eucharist - strictly a ticketed event (free) which will be held Sunday, 9 October at 10.30am at St Peter's Cathedral, 27 King William Road, North Adelaide. Archbishop Justin Welby will be preaching at this service. You can register your ticket through Eventbrite here.

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
