A vibrant, welcoming and inclusive community
growing in faith and love

Weekly News and Pew Sheet

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 2ND OCTOBER 2022

THEME: PASSING ON THE FAITH

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew

Priest's Message

Sometimes we may wonder if anything we do makes a difference. Our readings today contain much to give us encouragement in our faith and in the passing on of our faith. The book of Lamentations is an extended reflection on the theme of grief. Based on an acrostic of the Hebrew alphabet the book works through the difficult themes of the Hebrews in Babylonian exile grieving for their lost homeland. Yet right in the very centre of the book we find some of the most hopeful words in all of scripture. "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, God's mercies never come to an end, they are new every morning". These were uttered times of challenge and they can give us strength and hope in our challenges too. The letter to Timothy encourages us that "God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline" and Jesus' image of faith the size of a mustard seed achieving great things is an enduring image that what we do can make a difference when it is done with faith. Today let us find encouragement in these readings to trust that our faithful words and actions can make a difference in God's kingdom.

Shoeboxes of Love

Today we launch our annual Shoeboxes of Love appeal with Operation Christmas Child. If you would like to participate, please collect your box and brochure from church this morning and returned by Sunday 23rd October. See note in the pew sheet for packing instructions

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline. 2 Timothy 1:7

Prayer of the day

Gracious God,
thank you for all those whose faith and witness
have enlightened us and brought us closer to you.
Strengthen us by your Spirit
that we may encourage the faith of others.
We ask in the name of Christ, our Redeemer and guide. Amen.

First Reading

Lamentations 1:1-6

A reading from the Book of Lamentations

How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal.

She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies.

Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting-place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festivals; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter.

Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper, because the Lord has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm - Canticle

Lamentations 3:19-26

The thought of my affliction and my homelessness is wormwood and gall!
My soul continually thinks of it
and is bowed down within me.

But this I call to mind,
and therefore I have hope:
The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

‘The Lord is my portion,’ says my soul,
‘therefore I will hope in him.’
The Lord is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.
It is good that one should wait quietly
for the salvation of the Lord.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:1-14

A reading from the second letter to Timothy

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God - whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did - when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

The word of the Lord stands for ever;
it is the word given to you, the Good News.

Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!' The Lord replied, 'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.'

'Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from ploughing or tending sheep in the field, "Come here at once and take your place at the table"? Would you not rather say to him, "Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink"? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, "We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!" '

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
