NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 23RD OCTOBER 2022

THEME: PRACTISE HUMILITY

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew

Priest's Message

Jesus' parable of the pharisee and the tax-collector is obvious and subtle all at once. When faced with the stark contrast between the two men, one can obviously point to the tax collector as the one who is more authentically repentant. But if we read the parable as pointing out two conflicting sides of our own personalities we are led into a more subtle reflection on authentic repentance.

There is no doubt that we can all be like the pharisee at times, measuring ourselves against others and in the process elevating ourselves above them in status. Typically, Jesus confronts his listeners by making the hero of his parable a person they would object to, and the villain is the one who should be the holy hero. But in the end the two men's roles in society are irrelevant. What matters is their approach to God. Both give the appearance of humility, but the tax collector is the one who throws himself on the loving mercy of God and trusts in it fully for his justification rather than on anything he has or hasn't done.

Many of us still have a small voice in our heads that says - if we do enough good things God will love us. That is not the Gospel. The Gospel is accepting that though we are not perfect, God still loves us. Our relationship with God is based on the honest acceptance of both who we are and that we are loved. True repentance acknowledges this in prayer. This is true humility.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence - Luke 18.17

Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it.

Prayer of the day

O God, who alone can probe the depth of the heart, you hear the prayer of the humble and justify the repentant sinner: grant us the gift of humility, that, seeing our own faults clearly, we may refrain from judging our neighbour but rely solely upon your saving grace.

We make our prayer through your Son, our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Joel 2: 23-32

A reading from the Prophet Joel

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God;
for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain,
the early and the later rain, as before.

The threshing floors shall be full of grain,
the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten,
the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter,
my great army, which I sent against you.

You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
and praise the name of the LORD your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you.

And my people shall never again be put to shame.

You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other.

And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh;
your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
your old men shall dream dreams,
and your young men shall see visions.

Even on the male and female slaves,
in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 65:1-7

A.P.B.A. page 285

- 1 You are to be praised, O God, in Zion:
to you shall vows be paid, you that answer prayer.
- 2 To you shall all flesh come to confess their sins:
when our misdeeds prevail against us,
you will purge them away.
- 3 Blessed are those whom you choose
and take to yourself to dwell within your courts:
we shall be filled with the good things of your house,
of your holy temple.
- 4 You will answer us in your righteousness with terrible deeds,
O God our saviour:
you that are the hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the distant seas;
- 5 Who by your strength made fast the mountains:
you that are girded with power;
- 6 Who stilled the raging of the seas, the roaring of the waves:
and the tumult of the peoples.
- 7 Those who dwell at the ends of the earth
are afraid at your wonders:
the dawn and the evening sing your praises.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8

A reading from the second letter to Timothy

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself;
and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.

Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 18:9-14

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other, for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
