Weekly News and Pew Sheet

TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST SUNDAY - 6TH NOVEMBER 2022

THEME: GROUNDED IN PRAISE

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew

Priest's Message

Our theme "Grounded in Praise" reminds us to be thankful people, living lives of gratitude. Our Sunday worship is always filled with opportunities for being thankful. We can be thankful people even in the midst of sad and difficult situations.

The prophet Haggai promises the returning exiles that the "latter splendour of this house shall be greater than the former" [Haggai 2:9] comforting them that the new Temple's future glory will be greater than the Temple of Solomon, which had been destroyed. Can we cling to a similar hope? It seems hard to imagine that the future of our church will be greater than the past. Yet we are called to look forward in hope rather than back in nostalgia. Psalm 145:4 states that "One generation shall praise your works to another: and declare your mighty acts." So, rightly, we continue to pass on the spiritual life with a hope-filled message grounded in praise to each generation.

In confidence we trust that: "The Lord is near to all who call upon him: to all who call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of those that fear him: he will hear their cry, and save them." [Ps.145:18-19] The second letter to the Thessalonians [2:15-17] reminds us rightly to "stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught" knowing that God will "comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word." So with grateful hearts and a hopeful mindset we live grounded in praise to the God of life.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

‘I am the resurrection and the life,’ says the Lord. ‘Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.’ John 11.25-26

Prayer of the day

God of all the living,
in the resurrection of Christ Jesus
you have given us the promise of life which death itself cannot destroy:
in the strength of this unshakeable promise,
give us a new heart to live, even now, as your new creation.
We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Haggai 1.15b-2:9

A reading from the Prophet Haggai

In the second year of King Darius, in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the prophet Haggai, saying: Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, and say, Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing? Yet now take courage, O Zerubbabel, says the Lord; take courage, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the Lord; work, for I am with you, says the Lord of hosts, according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My spirit abides among you; do not fear. For thus says the Lord of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasure of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with splendour, says the Lord of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the Lord of hosts. The latter splendour of this house shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the Lord of hosts.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

- ¹ I will exalt you, O God my king:
I will bless your name for ever and ever.
- ² Every day will I bless you:
and praise your name for ever and ever.
- ³ Great is the Lord, and wonderfully worthy to be praised:
his greatness is past searching out.
- ⁴ One generation shall praise your works to another:
and declare your mighty acts.
- ⁵ As for me, I will be talking
of the glorious splendour of your majesty:
I will tell the story of your marvellous works.
- ¹⁷ The Lord is just in all his ways:
and faithful in all his dealings.
- ¹⁸ The Lord is near to all who call upon him:
to all who call upon him in truth.
- ¹⁹ He will fulfil the desire of those that fear him:
he will hear their cry, and save them.

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

A reading from the second letter to the Thessalonians

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia.

Jesus Christ is the firstborn of the dead;
glory and kingship be his for ever and ever.

Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 20:27-38

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.'

Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
