Weekly News and Pew Sheet

TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY - 13TH NOVEMBER 2022

THEME: ST MARTIN (VISION OF POSSIBILITIES)

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew

Priest's Message

Saint Martin lived at an interesting time in the fourth century - born just after Constantine had decriminalised Christianity but before it became the official religion of the Roman Empire. Christianity was therefore a rather different and interesting thing to explore. Like a typical teenager, Martin rebelled against his pagan parents to become a catechumen and learnt about the Christian faith. Despite this he was still destined to become a Roman soldier like his father and was conscripted at the age of fifteen.

The enduring image of Saint Martin in art and iconography is the act of him sharing his soldier's cloak with a naked beggar. This small act of kindness taken in isolation is no different from the myriad of charitable works done by Christians through the ages to this day. However, the dream that followed this incident changed Martin's life for ever. He dreamt that night of Christ wearing the half cloak he had given to the beggar. At this point he decided he could no longer serve as a Roman Soldier and became the first conscientious objector. Accused of cowardice, he offered to be in the front line of battle but not to carry a weapon.

He later was baptised by St Hillary of Poitiers and served as a monk and later as Bishop of Tours - a role he wanted to avoid but reluctantly assented to the will of the people who brought him by force to be their bishop. Martinmas is a feast celebrated in some European countries as a feast day before the start of Advent, much like Shrove Tuesday, is a feast day prior to the Lenten Season.

O Christ give us eyes to see your presence Within those in need whom we serve. Amen.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence - 1 Samuel 2:35

I shall raise up for myself a faithful priest who will act in accord with my heart and my mind, says the Lord.

Prayer of the day

O God, you are glorified in the Bishop Saint Martin both by his life and death, make new, we pray, the wonders of your grace in our hearts,
that neither death nor life may separate us from your love.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 2:2-4

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

In days to come the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; all the nations shall stream to it. Many peoples shall come and say, 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths.' For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 89

by Dan Schutte 1973

The following response will be sung twice through the first time and then once after each verse. Please join in when you can.

Happy are the ones who love the Lord.

Happy are the ones who walk in his ways.

Happy are the ones who love the Lord.

Happy are the ones who walk in his ways.

On the upright the Lord shall shine, like a lamp to light the dark.
God will be slow to anger, his steadfast love endures. Response

And the Lord shall be our refuge, like a stronghold from the foe.
He shall raise the lowly; the proud are brought down low. Response

He shall shatter the chains that bind you, set you free among the clouds.
Sin shall no more hold you, his steadfast love endures. Response

Second Reading

Ephesians 1:15-23

A reading from the Letter to the Ephesians

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power.

God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel

Matthew 25:31-40

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Matthew

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

St Martin, Bishop of Tours

(window at St Martin's Glenelg South)

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.'

Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Truly, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least of these my brothers or sisters, you did for me.'"

ST MARTIN TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

A St Martin's Summer is a term describing an unusually warm autumn in the northern hemisphere especially into November (St Martin's Day is 11th November)

The traditional food for St Martin's day is Roast Goose, to remember that when the people wanted to take Martin by force to make him their bishop, he (somewhat foolishly) hid in a goose pen and their honking gave him away.

The origin of the word chapel is thanks to St Martin. A special sanctuary where his cloak (capella) was kept became known as a chapel and that name began to be used for other special places of remembrance.

Martin is patron saint of hotel-keepers, vintners, wine growers, wine-makers, reformed alcoholics, cavalry, equestrians, soldiers, tailors, beggars, France, against impoverishment, and geese.

San Martino is a children's song sung in Italy. Their version of Frere Jacques

It's always great to welcome visitors to our churches at St Peter's, Glenelg and St Martin's, Glenelg South.

At 7:45am (St Peter's) you will need this news sheet and a green prayerbook (p.119). At 8:45am (St Martin's) you will be greeted with a news sheet, prayer & hymnbooks to use.

At 10am (St Peter's) you only need this news sheet as the service is on the powerpoint screen.

Feel free to sit anywhere - there are no specially reserved seats.

Toilets are located, at St Peter's, along the passageway, under the projector screen. At St Martin's, they are in the corridor adjacent to the worship space.

Feel free to join in with all aspects of worship as you feel comfortable. Please be aware that visitors are warmly welcome to receive communion with us.

We love to meet new people so you are very welcome to stay for a cuppa after the service, but don't feel bad if you need to get away - there's always next time.

We hope you find inspiration and blessing in your time spent here.
