Weekly News and Pew Sheet

TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST SUNDAY - 20TH NOVEMBER 2022

THEME: THE REIGN OF CHRIST (with Confirmation & Reception)

If you are visiting or new to our parish, please see the Welcome section on the back of this pew sheet

Welcome

A warm welcome to Bishop Denise Ferguson who will be with us for our 10am Eucharist and Confirmation service. Congratulations and blessings to Simon Blight, Stephanie Falcon-Harvie and Ema Pierre, who will be Confirmed and to Angela Clifton and Alison Clifton who will be received into the Anglican Church at this service.

Reflection on Today's Theme

Christus Rex (Christ the King) or the Reign of Christ is the theme given to this final Sunday of the liturgical year. Next week a new liturgical journey starts with the season of Advent. Portrayals of Christ the King in art and iconography have some things in common – a crown, the orb representing the world, priestly garments and bare feet. The bare feet with the wounds of the cross tell us something important - that this is no ordinary king. This point is made even clearer when the figure of Christus Rex is portrayed on the cross.

Perhaps the theology of this Sunday is best summed up by the last two verses of W.H.Vanstone's wonderful hymn "Morning Glory, Starlit Sky" (cf TIS 174)

Christus Rex Sanctuary window at St Peter's

*Therefore he who shows us God helpless hangs upon the tree;
And the nails and crown of thorns tell of what God's love must be.*

*Here is God: no monarch he, throned in easy state to reign;
Here is God, whose arms of love, aching, spent, the world sustain.*

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Sentence

Isaiah 2.3a

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Prayer of the day

Eternal God, you exalted Jesus Christ to rule over all things, and have made us instruments of his kingdom: by your Spirit empower us to love the unloved, and to minister to all in need, then at the last bring us to your eternal realm where we may be welcomed into your everlasting joy and may worship and adore you for ever; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 23:3-6

A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Zechariah (Benedictus) Luke 1:68-79 A.P.B.A. page 425

Blessed are you, Lord, the God of Israel:

you have come to your people and set them free

You have raised up for us a mighty Saviour:

born of the house of your servant David.

Through your holy prophets, you promised of old:

To save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us.

To show mercy to our forebears:

and to remember your holy covenant.

This was the oath you swore to our father Abraham:
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
Free to worship you without fear:
holy and righteous before you, all the days of our life.
And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High:
for you will go before the Lord to prepare the way,
To give God's people knowledge of salvation:
by the forgiveness of their sins.
In the tender compassion of our God:
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death:
and guide our feet into the way of peace.

Second Reading

Colossians 1:11-20

A reading from the Letter to the Colossians

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Blessed is the one who inherits the kingdom of David our ancestor, blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 23:33-43

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.' And they cast lots to divide his clothing.

And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.'

Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
