PALM SUNDAY

ASSOCIATE PRIEST'S HOLY WEEK REFLECTION QUESTIONS

These questions taken from <https://theislandparson.com/2019/04/14/different-processions-a-sermon-for-palm-sunday-2019/> provide some great questions to reflect on. You may like to read St Mark's Passion 14:12 – 15:47 as you do so. As you prepare for your Holy Week journey and to walk with Jesus to the Cross where are you in this Passion Play?

WORSHIP RESOURCES FOR TODAY

Palm Sunday Liturgy and Blessing of the Palms

The crowds praised God for the great things they had witnessed in Jesus.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.

“Peace and glory in the highest heaven,” they cried.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.

If our voices are silent, the very stones will shout for joy.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.

Let us pray

Merciful God,

as we enter this holy week and join in prayer,

turn our hearts again to Jerusalem,

draw us close to you, Lord, on this Palm Sunday, this day of confusion, of shouts of joy, and cries of shame.

Remind us that you are with us always,

in all moods and seasons, in darkness and light and in between.

Lead us through this day and this week,

to the cross, to the empty tomb, and beyond. Amen.

God of Glory, you are known to us through the loving action of Jesus. On this day we remember how he entered the Holy City of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of Kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Bless these branches and palm crosses to be for us signs of Jesus' love, service and fullness of life. May we who bear them in Christ's name, walk in the way of your Kingdom, now and always. Amen.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord

Hosanna in the highest

Scripture Sentence for the Day - Philippians 2:10-11

At the name of Jesus, every knee shall bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Opening Prayer

Hosanna Saviour, we wave our palms and sing our praise
as we remember your triumphal entry into Jerusalem.

May your Spirit enter the heart of our worship this day giving us the strength to endure the journey which is ahead. Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Everlasting God, in your tender love for the human race
you sent your Son to take our nature,
and to suffer death upon the cross:
in your mercy enable us to share in his obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of his resurrection;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 50.4-9a

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord God has opened my ear,

and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards.

I gave my back to those who struck me,

and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;

I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced;

therefore I have set my face like flint,

and I know that I shall not be put to shame;

he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 31:9-18

APBA p.250

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble:

my eye wastes away for grief,

my throat also and my inward parts.

¹⁰ For my life wears out in sorrow,

and my years with sighing:

my strength fails me in my affliction,
and my bones are consumed.

¹¹ I am become the scorn of all my enemies:
and my neighbours wag their heads in derision.

¹² I am a thing of horror to my friends:
and those that see me in the street shrink from me.

¹³ I am forgotten like one dead and out of mind:
I have become like a broken vessel.

¹⁴ For I hear the whispering of many:
and fear is on every side;

¹⁵ While they plot together against me:
and scheme to take away my life.

¹⁶ But in you, Lord, have I put my trust:
I have said 'You are my God.'

¹⁷ All my days are in your hand:
O deliver me from the power of my enemies
and from my persecutors.

¹⁸ Make your face to shine upon your servant:
and save me for your mercy's sake.

Second Reading

Philippians 2.5-11

A Reading from the Letter to the Philippians

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death –
even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Hear the word of the Lord, Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia

Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 11:1-11

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" just say this, "The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately." ' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

'Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!'

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NOTICES

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES PASSOVER MEAL

We will be holding our children's Passover meal on Palm Sunday 24th March at 4:30-6:00pm. This is a fun way to re-create the last supper and teach children the meaning behind it. It is always much enjoyed by children and parents alike. Please RSVP by Friday 22nd March to Rev. Andrew.

MAUNDY THURSDAY PASSOVER MEAL

We will hold our adults Passover Meal on Maundy Thursday at 6:00-8:00pm in the Community Centre. This will follow the Passover Seder (order) and incorporate teaching about the origins of the eucharist. It includes an informal communion within the body of the meal. For those who wish there is a chance for silent prayer in the chapel afterwards from 8:00-9:00pm. Please RSVP by this Sunday 24th March on the sheet at church or through the parish office.

NEXT MOTHERS UNION MEETING

The next Mothers Union meeting will take place on Monday 25th March at 1:30pm at St. Martins. All welcome! The meeting will have a Easter theme and a Easter Afternoon Tea will be shared.

NEXT GALS MEETING

Please come along on Tuesday 26th March at 2pm to hear Josephine Allen from Holdfast History Centre speak to us about her collection of W.W.1 postcards using a Power Point presentation . (Postcards sent from soldiers at 'the front' to friends & family). She invites anyone to bring along any W.W.1 memorabilia they may have . Josie is a very enthusiastic speaker & I'm sure we will enjoy her presentation. Looking forward to seeing you for a 'cuppa' too !

FOOD MINISTRY UPDATE

Supplies are starting to run low so we are very appreciative of all the donations that you make to our food ministry. Therefore we are happy to receive any non-perishable foods but in particular at the moment: pasta and pasta sauce, coffee and small packets of sweet biscuits.
